

Concrete Works Specialist-Devoll Hydropower Albania

Devoll Hydropower SHA (DHP) is a wholly owned company within the Statkraft AS Group of companies. DHP has been awarded a Concession Agreement by the Albanian Government to develop, build, own and operate three power hydropower plants on the Devoll River in Albania with an installed capacity of approximately 280 MW. Start of construction is expected in 2013. This is a project position for 2 years with a possible extension until 2020, with future perspectives for further positions in Statkraft's large hydropower projects.

Project site is located on Devoll river, near Elbasan, Gramsh/Albania.

Your role:

The Concrete Works Specialist reports to Contracts Manager for the Devoll Hydro Power Project and is part of the DHP project organization responsible for implementation of the Banja and Moglice hydro power plants.

- Monitor, quality assure and audit Owner's Engineer's management of concrete structures in dams, spillways, tunnels and powerhouses
- Monitor progress on various sites
- Monitor quality of work performed on site and its compliance with contracts
- Audit survey and measurement process
- Review documentation, i.e. inspection and test reports
- Control, comment and confirm progress reports and invoices received from contractors via Owner's Engineer
- Assess and advice on Method Statements, Safe Job Analysis, Risk Management, QA-plans, Environmental Management and Action Plan and other plans and documentation of technical nature related to roads and dams
- Support Contracts Manager in preparation of weekly and monthly reports
- Support Contracts Manager in contingency and change order management
- Document progress, quality and volumes by pictures
- Check As-built documentation
- Support and assure execution of information handover to Operations.
- Some travelling will be required

Your profile:

- Bachelor / Master degree in Civil Engineering
- Minimum 10 years' experience from design and construction of concrete structures in hydropower projects
- Experience in supervision of contracts and contractors
- Fluent in English both oral and in writing, Albanian and/or Turkish is an advantage
- Computer literate in MS Office applications
- Team player with international experience and high integrity and ethical standard
- Independent, self-propelled – a person who can follow up and deliver on time according to set standards.
- Some travelling will be required

Devoll Hydropower offers:

- Professional and personal development in a company experiencing growth
- A positive working environment characterized by competence, responsibility and innovation
- A diverse workplace with regard to gender, age and cultural background
- Competitive terms of employment and benefit schemes

Interested candidates are invited to submit their CV's until 19nd August 2013 under the email address: d.marko@pendlpiswanger.at with referential code PPAL 104/550